

MEET YOUR LEGISLATORS

17th Legislative District

State Senator
Lynda Wilson
(R)

Senator Wilson grew up in an Air Force family that lived around the United States and in Germany before settling in Clark County.

Her priorities as a lawmaker begin with a strong economy and positive business climate, to increase job opportunities across Washington; they also include public safety, veterans' issues, housing, responsible budgeting, reducing regulations that hinder economic growth, and holding government agencies accountable.

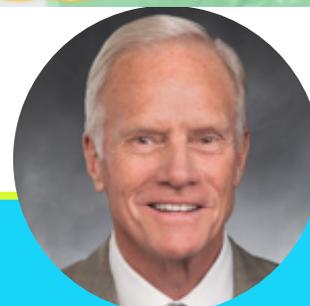

She serves on the Ways & Means (Ranking Member, Operating) and Law & Justice Committees.

State Representative
Kevin Waters
(R - position 1)

Representative Waters is a local business leader and he strongly supports cutting taxes and law enforcement, being a former corrections officer. With the crime rate escalating, Kevin believes in fully funding law enforcement offices to protect individuals and families and avoid making the mistakes that have been so prevalent in Olympia and throughout Washington.

He serves on Postsecondary Education & Workforce (Assistant Ranking Minority Member), Capital Budget, Innovation, Community & Economic Development, & Veterans, and Regulated Substances & Gaming Committees.

State Representative
Paul Harris
(R - position 2)

Representative Harris is a cancer survivor and understands first-hand how cancer impacts patients and their families. He is a small business owner and manager and is a strong supporter of education, schools, teachers, and paraeducators,

A few of his goals in Olympia include Provide quality education for the children in the state of Washington and keep tax rates low so that working families can prosper.

He serves on the Appropriations, Education, Health Care & Wellness, and Rules
