18th Legislative District

State Senator
Ann Rivers
(R)

Senator Rivers's priorities include strengthening Washington's economy, protecting the state's taxpayers by prioritizing and controlling state spending, and making sure the projects Southwest Washington needs for a solid transportation system are moving forward.

She serves on the Senate's Health and Long-Term Care committee (as Republican leader), Ways and Means committee, Housing committee and Rules committee.

State Representative
Stephanie McClintock
(R - position 1)

Representative McClintock's priorities include public safety and effective policing standards. She also wants technical and trades programs to be more available, especially in high school. She strongly supports funding our law enforcement and enforcing our laws.

She serves on the Capital Budget (Assistant Ranking Minority Member), Consumer Protection & Business (Assistant Ranking Minority Member), and Education Committees.

State Representative
Greg Cheney
(R - position 2)

Representative Cheney is focused on fixing the Blake decision to recriminalize drugs, while incentivizing treatment-based care over incarceration. Increasing funding for, and improving the delivery of, mental health services, and working on regional transportation solutions and reducing congestion.

He is currently serving on four House committees – Capital Budget, Civil Rights and Judiciary, Consumer Protection and Business, and Regulated Substances and Gaming.
