

MEET YOUR LEGISLATORS

19th Legislative District

State Senator
Jeff Wilson
(R)

Senator Wilson is a strong advocate for job creation, economic prosperity and preservation of the quality of life in southwest Washington. He is also the commissioner for the Port of Longview, where he has been a leader in efforts to reduce taxes, eliminate fees and bring good-paying jobs to the community.

He serves on the following Senate Committees - State Government and Elections (ranking member), Housing and Local Government; and Transportation; and Human Services

State Representative
Jim Walsh
(R - position 1)

Representative Walsh's legislative priorities are creating family-wage jobs, adequately funding schools, and protecting taxpayers, property rights and gun rights.

Jim is committed to bipartisanship and finding common-sense solutions in the Legislature.

He serves on four House committees, including the House Civil Rights and Judiciary Committee where he is the ranking member. Jim also serves on the Human Services, Youth and Early Learning Committee, Rules Committee; and Transportation Committee.

State Representative
Joel McEntire
(R - position 2)

Representative McEntire's legislative priorities include protecting the valuable fishing, farming and forestry industries of Southwest Washington. He is also focused on reducing the cost of living, making our communities safer, address the affordable housing crisis, and ensure all students have an equitable learning environment.

He serves on three House committees, including the Education Committee where he is the assistant ranking minority member, the Capital Budget Committee, and the Postsecondary Education & Workforce Committee.
