

MEET YOUR LEGISLATORS

20th Legislative District

State Senator
John Braun
(R)

Senator Braun was the lead budget writer and negotiator while chairing the Senate budget committee in 2017 when he sponsored the state's 2017-19 operating budget. His work led to historic investments in the state's public education system and property tax reform aimed at providing full state funding for basic education and a property tax reduction for 73 percent of state residents. He also sponsored and worked to pass the College Affordability Program in 2015, which included the first-ever tuition cut at state colleges and universities.

He serves on four committees - Rules (Ranking Member), Housing, Labor and Commerce, and Ways and Means.

State Representative
Peter Abbarno
(R - position 1)

Throughout Representative Abbarno's career, he has practiced many areas of law, including estate planning, business/corporate law, family law, criminal prosecution and defense, workers' compensation, and personal injury. He also volunteers time to assist victims of domestic violence and assaults, non-profits, and new entrepreneurs with business formation and business planning.

He serves on three House committees - Capital Budget (Ranking Minority Member), Environment and Energy, and Labor and Workplace Standards.

State Representative
Ed Orcutt
(R - position 2)

Representative Orcutt is a leader on transportation issues and believes state lawmakers should resist efforts to raise taxes on individuals, families, or employers. He is an advocate for protecting our economy, employers, and quality of life. Ed's experience as a small business owner has provided insight on the challenges employers and families face from their government.

He serves on three House committees - Finance (Ranking Minority Member), Agriculture and Natural Resources; and Transportation.

Champion of a Bill for TMS

Transforming foster care & Ending youth homelessness