

MEET YOUR LEGISLATORS

22nd Legislative District

State Senator
Sam Hunt
(D)

Senator Hunt was a schoolteacher in Pasco (where he also served as a city council member and mayor pro tempore) and Montesano. He also worked for the U.S. Senate Appropriations Committee and the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, served as staff director for the Washington Senate Majority Leader, was education advisor to Governor Booth Gardner, and served as legislative director at the Department of Information Services.

He is chair of the State Government & Elections Committee and is also a member of the Ways & Means and Early Learning & K-12 Education Committees.

State Representative
Beth Doglio
(D - position 1)

Representative Doglio manages a consulting business focused on climate, housing, and local projects. In the community her volunteer work includes serving as the President of the Board of Directors for Quixote Community (a regional housing organization), and on the board of South Sound YMCA and PARC (Parks, Arts, Recreation and Culture) Foundation.

She serves on the Environment & Energy (Chair), Labor & Workplace Standards; and Transportation Committees.

State Representative
Jessica Bateman
(D - position 2)

Representative Bateman as an organizer and coalition leader, has worked to create affordable housing, assist struggling families, and empower at-risk youth. Jessica also worked to pass a Sanctuary City Resolution in Olympia and is a passionate advocate for accessible health care. She is a first-generation college student.

She currently serves as Vice-Chair of the Health Care & Wellness Committee and am a member of the Capital Budget and Housing Committees.

Champion of a Bill for TMS

Transforming foster care & Ending youth homelessness