

MEET YOUR LEGISLATORS

23rd Legislative District

State Senator
Drew Hansen
(D)

Senator Drew Hansen has focused on opening up opportunities for people in Kitsap County to get trained for good jobs that support their families. His work to build partnerships with Olympic College, Western Washington University, and apprenticeship programs has transformed lives across the district. He also sponsored Washington's landmark free college tuition law and the nation's first state-level net neutrality law, New Hope Act, the DREAM Act 2.0, and the Public Broadband Act.

He serves on Higher Education & Workforce Development, Labor & Commerce, and Transportation Committees.

State Representative
Tarra Simmons
(D - position 1)

Representative Simmons has survived poverty, violence, trauma, substance use disorder and incarceration, and brings that lived experience to Olympia where she fights to reduce incarceration, increase access to behavioral and mental health, and ease re-entry of formerly incarcerated people back into society.

She serves on the Community Safety, Justice & Reentry, Appropriations, Rules, and Healthcare & Wellness Committees.

State Representative
Greg Nance
(D - position 2)

Representative Nance is focused on strengthening our schools, bolstering our workforce, growing mental health resources, and protecting our environment. Greg battled depression and substance abuse. Now sober for over 11 years, Greg loves connecting with Kitsap kids to share lessons learned and can frequently be found speaking at local schools. He co-founded Moneythink, a college-success nonprofit.

He serves on the Education, Postsecondary Education & Workforce, and Transportation Committees.
