

MEET YOUR LEGISLATORS

31st Legislative District

State Senator
Phil Fortunato
(R)

Senator Fortunato has been a contractor for over 30 years and is currently recognized expert in Clean Water Act compliance. He understands Davis Bacon Act compliance, Employment Security, Unemployment and business tax issues. In addition, he has done work on the international market in Europe, Asia and Canada and understands international trade and import export issues as well. His community activities include church, Knights of Columbus, Buckley Eagles, Sons of Italy, Washington Arms Collectors, National Rifle Association and more.

He serves on the Housing (Ranking Member), State Government & Elections, and Transportation committees.

State Representative
Drew Stokesbary
(R - position 1)

Representative Stokesbary's priorities are to reduce taxes and irresponsible budget growth, hold state agencies accountable for waste and fraud; encourage job creation and economic growth across WA state; protect our communities from crime and drug use, prohibit drug injection sites; and fully fund K-12 education to ensure college is affordable and accessible.

Drew is a partner at the boutique law firm Chalmers & Adams, admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, and also serves on the Board of the Auburn Valley YMCA.

He is the Minority Leader for the Republican Caucus and serves on the Appropriations and Rules committees.

State Representative
Eric Robertson
(R - position 2)

Representative Robertson past duties include working as a WA State Patrol (Captain), Director of Government & Media Relations, commander of the Office of Professional Standards, and United States Marshal for Western WA. He formed the first regional fire authority in the state as the administrator, promoting statewide public policy for the regionalization of fire services and fire/EMS safety issues.

He is the Minority Caucus Vice Chair. His committees include the Consumer Protection & Business (Ranking Minority Member), Regulated Substances & Gaming (Assistant Ranking Minority Member), and Transportation (Assistant Ranking Minority Member).

Champion of a Bill for TMS

Transforming foster care & Ending youth homelessness