

MEET YOUR LEGISLATORS

35th Legislative District

State Senator
Drew MacEwen
(R)

Senator MacEwen is an advocate for public safety, better schools, government accountability, tax relief, and economic growth and greater opportunity.

Previously, he served in the U.S. Navy, founded the firm Falcon Financial, Inc, invested in several local businesses, and was the former president of the Shelton-Mason Chamber of Commerce. His community involvements include the Rotary Club of Shelton, the Mason General Hospital Foundation, Kitsap Medical Society and more.

His committees include Environment, Energy & Technology (Ranking Member), Business, Financial Services, Gaming & Trade, Labor & Commerce, and Transportation.

State Representative
Dan Griffey
(R - position 1)

Representative Griffey began his career of service as a volunteer firefighter at the age of 16 and, at the time, was one of the youngest EMTs in Washington state. He was hired as a professional firefighter for Central Mason in 1992, and retired as a lieutenant, after 30 years of service in June of 2022. In addition to his career and his service as a state legislator, Dan remains active in the community, volunteering for various causes and organizations.

He is the Minority Whip for the Republican Caucus. His committees include Community Safety, Justice, & Reentry (Assistant Ranking Minority Member), Local Government, and Transportation.

State Representative
Travis Couture
(R - position 2)

A U.S. Navy Veteran, Rep. Travis Couture understands what service and sacrifice mean. He patrolled the Pacific as a submariner while stationed with Ballistic Missile Submarines USS Alabama and USS Nebraska, successfully completing multiple strategic deterrence patrols.

He works as a defense contractor at Naval Submarine Base Kitsap, where he continues to assist the U.S. Navy.

His committees include Appropriations (Assistant Ranking Minority Member), Human Services, Youth, & Early Learning (Assistant Ranking Minority Member), and Education.
