

MEET YOUR LEGISLATORS

37th Legislative District

State Senator
Rebecca Saldaña
(D)

Senator Saldaña is Chicana of Mexican and Germanic roots. She brings 16 years of experience as an organizer with SEIU Local 6, the United Farm Workers, and Oregon's farmworker union, PCUN. She has used her experience and expertise to spearhead legislative efforts to increase equity for historically oppressed communities, protect workers' rights, encourage sustainable development, build equitable transportation solutions, and increase voter access to elections.

She is the Majority Caucus Vice Chair. Her committees include Labor & Commerce (Vice Chair), Housing, Rules, and Ways & Means.

State Representative
Sharon Tomiko Santos
(D - position 1)

Representative Santos's proposals reflect her strong advocacy for delivering high performing learning programs, ensuring a well-trained educator workforce, and eliminating educational inequities. Her key policy interests include civil rights, women's rights, economic and environmental justice, affordable housing, and community preservation. She has served on the boards of the Boys and Girls Clubs of King County, the National Asian Pacific American Women's Forum, and the University of Washington Business and Economic Development Program Board of Ambassadors.

Her committees include Education (Chair), Finance, and Consumer Protection & Business,

State Representative
Chipalo Street
(D - position 2)

Representative Street was raised in a working-class African American community. He co-founded a start-up in remote cardiac rehabilitation, co-founded the Teacher Scientist Partnership at Technology Access Foundation Academy, started a small real estate company that views rental homes as partnerships between the owner and tenants, is involved with the Public Policy Impact Council at the United Way of King County, and now works for Microsoft's Chief Technology Officer as an advisor on emerging technologies,

He is the Assistant Majority Whip. His committees include Finance (Vice Chair), Environment & Energy, Innovation, Community & Economic Development, & Veterans.

Champion of a Bill for TMS

Transforming foster care & Ending youth homelessness