

MEET YOUR LEGISLATORS

38th Legislative District

State Senator
June Robinson
(D)

Senator Robinson has a life-long commitment to public service. After college, she served as a Peace Corps Volunteer in rural Jamaica for three years.

Prior to being elected to the Legislature, she held leadership positions in several nonprofit and local government organizations focused on community health, affordable housing and public health.

She is currently employed by Sno-Isle Libraries.

Her committees include Ways & Means (Chair) and Health & Long Term Care (Vice Chair).

State Representative
Julio Cortes
(D - position 1)

Representative Julio Cortes's family immigrated from Mexico to Washington when he was five years old. After college, he worked at Oasis Teen Shelter and then at the Cocoon House for almost a decade, working directly with at-risk and homeless youth and their families. His priorities include addressing the root causes of homelessness, developing more affordable housing across Washington, supporting small businesses in Snohomish County and fighting the climate crisis.

His committees include Human Services, Youth, & Early Learning (Vice Chair), Innovation, Community & Economic Development, & Veterans and Transportation.

State Representative
Mary Fosse
(D - position 2)

Having experienced the trauma of poverty and homelessness in her childhood, her top priorities at the state legislature include affordable housing, addressing homelessness issues, supporting family-wage jobs, and establishing safe and resilient communities.

She currently serves on the Everett City Council, and is a former Everett Districting Commissioner, Council of Neighborhoods Representative, and legislative staffer in the state House.

She is the Assistant Majority Whip. Her committees include Labor & Workplace Standards (Vice Chair), Capital Budget, Community Safety, Justice, & Reentry.

Champion of a Bill for TMS

Transforming foster care & Ending youth homelessness