

MEET YOUR LEGISLATORS

39th Legislative District

State Senator
Keith Wagoner
(R)

Senator Wagoner's priorities include innovative solutions to provide safe and affordable housing, advocating for veterans, protecting 2nd amendment rights, ensuring access to behavior and mental health facilities, addressing the growing opioid epidemic and protecting private property rights.

Previously, he was a U.S. Navy Commander, a second lieutenant in the U.S. Marine Corps, and had earned his pilot's Wings of Gold.

He is the Republican Whip. His committees include Agriculture, Water, Natural Resources & Parks, Law & Justice and Ways & Means.

State Representative
Sam Low
(R - position 1)

Representative Low has worked on replacing the Highway 2 Trestle and widening Highway 9 to addressing housing affordability and supply. While serving in his state representative role, he also serves on the Snohomish County Council.

Prior to his role, he was a small business owner, served on the Lake Stevens City Council where he was the President and Mayor-Pro Tem, and served on the Snohomish County Board of Health where he was the Chair of the Health District.

His committees include Transportation (Assistant Ranking Minority Member), Housing, Rules, and State Government & Tribal Relations.

State Representative
Carolyn Eslick
(R - position 2)

Representative Eslick's commitments include finding solutions to mental health, housing, and public safety issues. She is an advocate for the prevention and rehabilitation of adult and teen substance abuse.

She founded GroWashington to help others start and grow their business, is a restaurant owner, served as a city council member and was the mayor of Sultan.

Her non-statutory committees include Children & Youth Behavioral Health Work Group, Legislative-Executive Workfirst Poverty Reduction Oversight Taskforce and more.

Her committees include Human Services, Youth, & Early Learning (Ranking Minority Member), Capital Budget, and Education.

Champion of a Bill for TMS

Transforming foster care & Ending youth homelessness