

MEET YOUR LEGISLATORS

5th Legislative District

State Senator
Mark Mullet
(D)

Senator Mullet is widely recognized as a collaborative legislator skilled at bringing people together across the aisle to work on major issues like affordable housing, access to college, and public safety.

He is currently the Vice Chair of the Senate Ways & Means Committee, where he also serves as the leader of the Senate's capital budget team. The capital budget makes infrastructure investments across WA, funding affordable housing, school construction, health care facilities, environmental projects, while creating tens of thousands of jobs.

He also serves on the Senate Early Learning & K-12 Education and the Senate Business, Financial Services, Gaming & Trade Committees.

State Representative
Bill Ramos
(D - position 1)

Representative Ramos served with the U.S. Department of Transportation in the Federal Transit Administration (FTA), where he worked as a Community Planner specializing in developing and managing the Tribal Transit Program, as well as Rural and Small Urban Area Transit Systems. He also served as a member of the Issaquah City Council from 2016 to 2018.

Currently he serves as chair of the State Government & Tribal Relations Committee, on the Community Safety, Justice, & Reentry Committee and on the Transportation Committee. Bill has fought for equity his whole life, and now fighting to bring equity and representation to the State of Washington

Lisa Callan
(D - position 2)

Since taking her oath of office over three years ago, she's been an active voice for Washington families, schools, youth, and community investment.

She serves as a co-chair of the Children & Youth Behavioral Health Work Group, leading a group of hundreds of stakeholders focused on improving the behavioral health services and strategies for children, youth, families, and caregivers. Through this work, she's helped pass many new policies in mental health, substance use, suicide prevention, workforce development, and perinatal-to-young-adult behavioral healthcare. She is also the vice chair of the Capital Budget Committee.
