

MEET YOUR LEGISLATORS

8th Legislative District

State Senator
Matt Boehnke
(R)

Sen. Matt Boehnke is serving his first term representing the 8th Legislative District in the State Senate, after serving two terms in the Washington House of Representatives.

In the House, Matt served on three committees, the Community and Economic Development Committee (ranking minority member), Appropriations, and Environment and Energy committees.

Matt currently serves on the Senate Human Services (Ranking); Business, Financial Services, Gaming & Trade; Environment, Energy & Technology; and Ways & Means Committees.

State Representative
Stephanie Barnard
(R - position 1)

Representative Barnard's legislative priorities are laser-focused on improving her region's economy, strengthening businesses, and creating more family-wage jobs. As an active community volunteer, she is a former member of the Board of Directors for the local Boy Scouts of America, and founded and operated a non-profit organization that provided car seats and training to low-income parents.

She is the assistant ranking member of the House Innovation, Community and Economic Development, and Veterans Committee, and also serves on the Finance Committee, and the Environment and Energy Committee.

State Representative
April Connors
(R - position 2)

A lifelong Tri-Citian, Representative Connors is a successful residential real estate agent. Her prior professional experiences include writing and maintaining city codes as a legal assistant, during which she was involved in a housing case brought to the U.S. Supreme Court.

High cost of living, to education, energy, housing, are among the host of issues she hopes to address.

She is a member of the Appropriations (Assistant Ranking Minority Member), Housing (Assistant Ranking Minority Member), Consumer Protection and Business Committees.

Champion of a Bill for TMS

Transforming foster care & Ending youth homelessness